

Yearbook Lesson Plans
 Week of September 4, 2007

1. Student Grading—
 - a. Homework—10%
 - b. Class work—30%
 - c. Pages completed—50%
 - d. Role completion—10%
2. Contracts—all students will receive contracts. They are to be returned for a grade on Wednesday, September 5, 2007
3. Calendar—

Date	Objective	Activity	Assessment
Tuesday, September 4	At the end of the lesson, students will be familiar with the yearbook technology and have reflected on good yearbook strategies.	4 stations (see next page)	Contract will go home for a homework grade Students will have work posted on walls
Wednesday, September 5	At the end of the lesson, students will have designed at least one 2-page layout and have agreed upon section pages, and title pages.	4 stations (see next page)	Students will have work saved on server
Thursday, September 6	At the end of the lesson, students will have chosen their desired sections and will begin working on the layouts with their partners.	4 stations (see next page)	Students will have work saved on server
Friday, September 7	At the end of the lesson, students will have chosen where we will put the colored pages and will have completed one 2-page spread in their appropriate section.	4 stations (see next page)	Students will have work saved on server

Lessons will be posted each week on my website—<http://scastro.edublogs.org>

Upcoming events—

1. OPEN HOUSE—September 11
2. Football and volleyball games
3. Classroom visits